Cultur Migrants Centre Releases 2023 Annual Report: Celebrating a Year of Support, Advocacy, and Impact for Migrant Communities

Navan, 29 October 2024 — Cultur Migrants Centre is proud to announce the release of its 2023 Annual Report, detailing a year of transformative work supporting and empowering migrant communities across Meath and Louth.

The report highlights key achievements, challenges, and ongoing initiatives that reflect Cultur's mission to promote social inclusion, provide essential services, and advocate for the rights and well-being of migrants.

Over the past year, Cultur has expanded its reach and impact through a range of services, including educational programs, employment support, housing assistance, and community engagement initiatives. With the support of funders, donors, government agencies, and stakeholders, Cultur has been able to address pressing needs within Ireland's migrant communities, fostering inclusion and building resilience.

Key highlights from the 2023 Annual Report include:

Empowering over 3,000 individuals: Through our educational workshops, vocational training, and language programs, we provided essential tools and skills to migrants, helping them to integrate more effectively into Irish society and contribute to their communities.

Employment and Skills Development: In collaboration with local businesses and training providers, Cultur launched initiatives aimed at equipping migrants with the skills needed for sustainable employment, positively impacting local economies and improving financial security for families.

Advocacy and Policy Impact: Cultur has strengthened its advocacy efforts by engaging with policymakers and collaborating on initiatives aimed at fairer immigration policies, anti-racism campaigns, and ensuring that migrant voices are heard in government.

Community Health and Well-being: Through culturally sensitive programs and mental health support services, Cultur focused on reducing health disparities within migrant communities, addressing barriers to healthcare, and fostering well-being.

"We are incredibly proud of the strides we have made in 2023," said Yemi Adenuga, Cultur Migrants Centre outgoing Chairperson. "This report is a testament to the dedication of our team, the resilience of our community members, and the unwavering support of our partners. Together, we have made a meaningful impact, but our work is far from over. We look forward to building on these achievements in the coming year."

The 2023 Annual Report provides an in-depth look at Cultur's financial health, program effectiveness, and future objectives. It underscores the ongoing commitment to a diverse and inclusive Ireland, where every migrant feels welcomed and empowered.
